

Reverend Rodrecus M. Johnson, Sr., Pastor

Trinity AME Church, Baltimore, MD

Rev. Rodrecus M. Johnson Sr. is a native of Charleston, South Carolina.

In June 1976 Rev. Johnson joined the United States Coast Guard and after completion of class A and B Schools and advanced Leadership School, he served as a Senior Electronics Technician and Human Relations Counselor for the United States Coast Guard.

1984 Rev. Johnson joined Emmanuel A.M.E. Church in Portsmouth, Virginia where he served as a Steward and received his license to preach under the pastorate of Rev. Ronald E. Braxton.

Obtaining an honorable discharge December 1986 from the United States Coast Guard after 10 ½ years of service, Rev. Johnson moved to Baltimore, Maryland and joined the rank of Ministers at Bethel A.M.E. Church under the pastorates of Bishop John R. Bryant and Bishop Frank M. Reid III. He served faithfully as the Minister to the Communications Ministry, which housed the Television, Radio, and Tape Ministries.

In May of 1991, Rev. Johnson became an Associate Minister of Waters A.M.E. Church under the pastorate of the Rev. Ronald E. Braxton. At Waters, Rev. Johnson served in various ministries of Waters that met the needs of the congregation and community.

Rev. Johnson was ordained an Itinerant Elder in April of 1994 and received his first Pastoral appointment in April of 1995 to The Bazil A.M.E. Church located in Cockeysville, Maryland.

This church needed major renovations. Renovations were completed within nine months of Pastor Johnson's arrival. Through the faithfulness of the people and the guidance of the Pastor, the membership continued to grow physically and spiritually.

June 17, 2004, Rev. Johnson received his second Pastoral Appointment to The Immanuel Temple A.M.E. Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Rev. Johnson under God's guidance took this church to higher heights where God was glorified, and the people grew in the grace of the Lord along with the community in which the church was located.

Rev. Johnson has served in various areas within the A.M.E. Church; He presently serves as the Treasurer of the Baltimore Conference, Baltimore Conference Resident Agent, CDC Representative of the Baltimore Conference, and a member of the Second Episcopal District Finance Committee.

He is presently the Pastor of The Historic Trinity A.M.E. Church located in East Baltimore where Trinity is being revitalized for greater Ministry for the Lord. Rev. Johnson studied at the following schools:

- Anne Arundel College
- Sojourner Douglas College
- Coppin State University

He has over forty-six years (46) of Federal Government Service and retired as an Engineering Specialist from the National Security Agency.

Rev. Rodrecus M. Johnson Sr. has been married to The Rev. Robin D. Johnson for over forty-seven years (47) and they are blessed with three loving children. Mrs. Cykeithia Turner (Edward), Rev. Dr. Rodrecus Jr. (Ayonna) and Miss Amanda Johnson. In addition, they are blessed with four loving grandsons, Rodrecus III, Christopher, Jackson, and Antonio whom they cherish.

His passion for the Church is threefold which is seen or heard through his preaching the Word of God, Equipping the Youth in the various facets of the A.M.E. Church and providing Leadership Training to those who are called to serve in the House of the Lord.

Rev. Johnson loves the Lord. “The Joy of the Lord is My Strength” is what keeps him moving in this walk for the Lord.
